

A09 - Forward Tipping Dumper

The CPCS Forward Tipping Dumper course is delivered through a combination of classroom-based tutorials and practical training.

Completing the course successfully will entitle delegates to a CPCS Red Trained Operator Card (upon successful completion of the appropriate CPCS Technical Test).

The Forward Tipping Dumper training course is for potential and existing operators who have received no formal instruction and those requiring refresher training.

Content

- Operate the machine to a minimum standard
- Fit and operate ancillary equipment
- Site the machine safely and efficiently
- Know which minor adjustments and routine servicing procedures are necessary, and be able to carry them out
- Prepare the machine for travelling on the public highway
- Understand the capabilities, purposes and limitations of each machine
- Apply the necessary safety precautions
- Understand how diesel engines work and how various parts of the machine operate

Course duration:

- Dependent upon experience

Entry requirements:

- Delegates must have passed a CITB Health, Safety and Environment (HS&E) test no more than two years before attending this course.
- Delegates must have a good understanding of spoken and written English.
Please contact us if you have any concerns in this area.

Assessment and exams:

- The course is delivered through a combination of classroom-based tutorials and practical's. Delegates will be assessed through both theory and practical tests.

Qualifications/certification:

- On successful completion of this course, delegates will be awarded a CPCS Red Trained Operator Card (on successful completion of the CPCS Technical Tests).