

Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (IOSH)

- Managing Safely

Who should attend?

Managers and Supervisors from any industry who require health and safety skills and knowledge.

Aim and Objectives

To enable delegates to ensure that safety issues are managed efficiently, protecting the workforce, other people and the general environment and will ensure that legal compliance is achieved.

Programme

The course content includes, health and safety legislation, understanding why accidents occur, communication relating to health and safety, common hazards and controlling risk. To include:

- Risk Assessments
- Method Statements
- Hazardous Materials and Substances
- Electricity
- Work Equipment
- Manual Handling
- Personal Protective Equipment
- Display Screen Equipment
- Inspections and Audits

Course Duration

4 days - 9.00 am to 4.30 pm

Cost

Open Course £675 per delegate + VAT.

This price includes lunch, refreshments and all course materials, registration fees and certificate on successful completion.

Dates and Venues

Please contact us for Dates and Venues