

LADDER ASSOCIATION TRAINING

BLMA (British Ladder Manufacturers Association)

Certified Safe Use of Ladder Training (Standard Course User)

Our BLMA Certified safe use of Ladder Training (Standard Course User) is a one day course.

The course covers and includes:

- Registration and induction
- Theory Session
- Relevant Health & Safety
- Legislation and Regulation, Codes of Practice
- Product Standards
- Classification
- Select appropriate work at height equipment
- Risk Assessment
- Ladder and Stepladder Types
- Accidents and Hazards
- Safe use
- Inspect ladders and stepladders for damage
- Understanding of the ladder inspection report and register
- Theory Test (Multi Choice)
- Practical Instruction use of leaning ladder and step ladder
- Practical Test

Upon successful completion candidates are issued with:

- Ladder Association identity card and certificate which is widely accepted and recognised by the Health & Safety Executive (HSE) and is valid for 5 years.
- BLMA Leaning Ladder and Stepladder Users Guide booklet

.Delegates will need the following:

- Hard Hat
- Safety Boots
- High Viz
- NI number